THE CASANOVA-KREUSCH LIBEL SUIF.

- Messrs. Russel and Stifel, attorneys for Rev. Alois Casanova, in his libel suit sgainst Father Kreusch, of the St. Alphonaus Church, yesterday filed their cipal Court, containing the cause of the sction. Plaintiff alleges that between the 5th day of June, 1877, and the 12th of August of the same year, Rev. Peter Kreusch did wilfully and maliciously compose and publish, or caused to be published, a certain malicious, scandalous and defamatory libel, injuring his good name, fame and credit, and causing good name, fame and credit, and causing it to be suspected that the plaintiff had conducted himself scandalously, in the following language: "This man has been my assistant from the 5th of June until the 12th of August, his conduct during the time he was with me was scandalous in the highest degree, and it will take years before the effects will die out." The plaintiff also claims to have been harassed, vexed and impoverished by a letter written by the defendant to a Catholic pastor in San Francisco, whose assistant Casanova had become, in the fact that this letter caused him to be discharged, and by said discharge he had "lost and been deprived of divers great gains and profits."

The declaration also alleges that in a discourse delivered in the German language the defendant uttered words, of which the following is a translation: "He," meaning a certain citizen of Wheeling, "with that base wretch Casanova, who had escaped from the penitentirry, went to the Bisbop." Also that defendant did write numerous ether letters to persons of authority in different parts of the country, containing matter detriaction. Plaintiff alleges that between to 5th day of June, 1877, and the 12th

RENEWER This standard article is compounded with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever. It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff. It gives the head a cooling, soothing sensation of great comfort, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean. By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable. A. A. Haves, M. D., State As sayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the Best Preparation
